

Donor Bill of Rights

Kids' Chance of Missouri shall utilize truthful solicitation materials, will respect the privacy concerns of donors, and expend donor funds consistent with donor intent. Relevant information shall be disclosed to potential donors. Kids' Chance of Missouri recognizes and respects the following Donor Bill of Rights:<sup>1</sup>

All donors have the right to be informed of the organizations mission, of the way the organization intends to use donated resources, and of its capacity to use donations effectively for their intended purposes.

All donors have the right to be informed of the identity of those serving on the organization's governing board, and to expect the board to exercise prudent judgment in its stewardship responsibilities.

All donors have the right to have access to the organization's most recent financial statements.

All donors have the right to be assured their gift will be used for the purposes for which they were given.

All donors have the right to receive appropriate acknowledgement and recognition.

All donors have the right to be assured that information about their donation is handled with respect and with confidentiality to the extent provided by law.

<sup>1</sup> Taken from A Donor Bill of Rights, developed by the American Association of Fund Raising Counsel, the Association for Healthcare Philanthropy, the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education, and the Association of Fundraising Professionals.

---