Dear Board of Directors:

We have prepared the following returns from information provided by you without verification or audit.

Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax (Form 990)

We suggest that you examine these returns carefully to fully acquaint yourself with all items contained therein to ensure that there are no omissions or misstatements. Attached are instructions for signing and filing each return. Please follow those instructions carefully.

Enclosed is any material you furnished for use in preparing the returns. If the returns are examined, requests may be made for supporting documentation. Therefore, we recommend that you retain all pertinent records for at least seven years.

PUBLIC DISCLOSURE RULES FOR 990

Following is a summary of the public disclosure rules related to tax-exempt organization IRS Form 990s, and attached herein is the public disclosure copy of your tax return that may be used to comply with such rules. Please note this version of your tax return may omit names and addresses of contributors.

Public Inspection: Tax-exempt organizations are required to make a copy of their IRS Form(s) 990, 990-EZ, or 990-PF (and 990-T, if applicable) available for public inspection and provide copies of such forms to individuals or organizations upon request at its principal office, during normal business hours, and for three years from the due date of the return. In addition, IRS Form 1023 and IRS letters of determination also must be made available to the public.

The following rules apply unless you make your public disclosure tax return available online:

- A request made in person must be granted on the day of the request; however, if the request places an unusual burden on the organization (e.g., a request is received just before close of business during normal working hours), the copy must be provided the following business day
- A request submitted in writing must be honored within 30 days of the receipt of the request or prepayment for copying charges received (if prepayment applies)

Fees: No fees may be charged for public inspection, but you may charge a fee for providing printed copies. Currently the permissible fee is $0.20 per page, and you may require the fee to be paid in advance.

Penalties: There are substantial penalties that may apply for failure to comply with either the public inspection rules or the requirement to provide copies upon request. Please note, however, there are rules in place designed to protect tax-exempt organizations from harassment campaigns..

In order that we may properly advise you of tax considerations, please keep us informed of any significant changes in your financial affairs or of any correspondence received from taxing authorities.

If you have any questions, or if we can be of assistance in any way, please call.

Sincerely,

KPM CPAs, PC
